

FCE – Informal Email Feedback:

Criteria:	Points (total): / 20p	Percentage: % / 100%	Grade: A / B / C / Failed	Well done:	To improve:
CONTENT  ___ p / 5p 	All content is relevant to the task (there is no off-topic information and no repetition of ideas).
	All content points are fully covered
	The candidate answers all the questions in a clear and detailed manner
	No effort required of the reader
	The target reader has all the information they need
COMMUNICATIVE ACHIEVEMENT  ___ p / 5p 	The letter has an appropriate greeting & is addressed to the person in the task
	The letter has an opening statement that relates to the task
	The letter has a main body (2 paragraphs)
	The letter has a conclusion, which links to a future answer from the reader
	The letter has an appropriate ending, which feels natural
	There should be no indentation & there should be some space left from the margin & paragraphs should be clearly delimited
	There are both simple & complex ideas
	The reader can follow the text easily, there is no break / confusion in communication (no confusing wording, no direct RO translation, etc).
	The letter is within the word limit (140-190 words)
	Informal register used consistently throughout (phrasal verbs – go on, hang out, check out -, contractions – I'm, we'll, don't -, informal vocabulary, informal linking words – well, anyway, to sum up, in a nutshell – idioms - call it a day, break a leg, it's not rocket science)
	The function of the task is successfully dealt with (e.g.: giving an opinion/ making suggestions/ supporting them with arguments etc)
ORGANISATION  ___ p / 5p 	Extensive use of linkers (and, but, also, what's more, on top of that, well, to sum it up, in a nutshell etc) used in a logical, natural way
	The ideas are logically connected at sentence level & paragraph level
	Gerunds, infinitives, relative clauses are used to link ideas
	The paragraphs are balanced (conclusion symmetrical to introduction + the main body paragraphs around the same length).
LANGUAGE  ___ p / 5p 	A good range of grammatical structures (Past Simple/Continuous/Perfect, Conditionals, Superlative structures, Modal verbs, Passive voice), used with a good degree of control
	Appropriate vocabulary: adjectives, adverbs, verbs expressing personal opinion
	High-level topic-related vocabulary is present
	There are few (to no) language (grammar / vocab / spelling) mistakes, especially when it comes to simple grammar & simple topic-related vocabulary
	The overall letter sounds natural
	Repetitions is always avoided (using pronouns & synonyms)

* After reading my teacher's feedback, I have decided to work on these MOST ESSENTIAL aspects:

1.
2.
3.

 After reading my teacher's feedback, I feel PROUDEST of: