

Colegio San Bernabé

10th Grade English
4th Quarter 2023, Exam 5

Name: _____

Code: _____ Date: _____

I. Fill in the blanks with the proper vocabulary word that best completes the following sentences.

appealing	compromise	unfamiliar	majority	rely	subjective arrive	daring	guideline	mix	secure	suggestion

1. The nutritionist was helpful as she made a _____ regarding how I could improve my diet.
2. If we _____ this chocolate syrup with milk, we'll be able to make chocolate milk instead.
3. A new _____ has been issued to all staff and teachers on what to do if an unknown person enters the school.
4. After the union representatives and the school board reached a _____, teachers were allowed to return to the classroom.
5. We have learned not to _____ on local weather reports since they are highly inaccurate.
6. Since the nurse did not attend training, she was _____ with the new procedures.
7. Advertisements showing the effects of mouth cancer were placed around the city in an attempt to make smoking less _____.
8. When a bill reaches the Senate, a simple _____ vote of 51 out of 100 is needed for the bill to pass.
9. Movers used a rope to _____ the furniture being transported in the back of the truck.
10. Taste is a _____ sense that can only truly be distinguished by the one who is doing the tasting.
11. I have been waiting for a package to _____ all week, but it still not in the mailbox.
12. Bold and _____, Harriet Tubman helped over 300 slaves escape to freedom through the Underground Railroad.

II. Answer the following questions in a complete sentence based on the Vocabulary Unit 31 homework.

1. Why are Octopus Soufflé and Three Tuber Salad described as exotic dishes?
2. Give an example of a tuber.

3. Why isn't the design of the menu at the Mountain View Restaurant matched by the design of the décor?
4. Why does Anna rely more on the restaurant reviews in the Falls River Times rather than local restaurant guide?
5. Why is one familiar choice on the menu called Pepper Crusted Steak?

III. Choose the word that best completes the sentence.

1. As a ----- for making contracts with a lot of new clients, Mr. Skinner was given additional vacation days.
a. reward
b. progress
c. solution
d. routine
2. Please be seated according to the -----name cards that have been placed on each table.
a. personalizes
b. personalizing
c. personalize
d. personalized
3. Some employees at Jenson Consulting ----- within a few miles of the office.
a. live
b. take
c. use d. have
4. Candidates must clearly express their strengths and weaknesses when -----interviews.
a. are attending
b. attend
c. to attend
d. attending
5. To indicate your ----- for the chicken or beef meal, please check the appropriate box.
a. placement
b. appearance
c. preference
d. collection
6. The projector borrowed by Ms. Reid is ----- back to the IT department by five o'clock.
a. due
b. set
c. paid
d. prompt
7. Many voters in this city are uninterested, and only about 15% of them are -----active.
a. politically
b. political
c. politics
d. politician
8. This year's award winner, Cheryl Garner, taught basic first aid skills to students and adults----- the region.
a. between
b. throughout c. during
d. toward
9. According to consumers, using the new Web site is no ----- than calling the help center directly.
a. easily
b. easy
c. easiest
d. easier
10. Anyone who participates ----- the city's Annual Baking Competition will receive a coupon from Fresh Supermarket.
a. to
b. beside
c. in d. among
11. -----, the cabin will be rented out for the entire month, but the owner would agree to four weekly rentals instead.
a. Reluctantly
b. Absolutely
c. Ideally
d. Mutually
12. City officials are still debating Irving Enterprises' request ----- the outdated building.
a. demolishes
b. have demolished
c. to demolish
d. demolished

13. Because the technology industry changes so -----, companies must develop ways to adapt.

- mostly
- quickly
- very
- hardly

14. Andrew Gray is an----- composer who has written a number of award-winning musicals.

- admires
- admire
- admired
- admiringly

15. Heron Glassworks ----- student groups of all ages for weekday tours of its warehouse and production floor.

- conveys
- preserves
- encloses
- welcomes

16. To combat mental illness, the clinic will take a more comprehensive ----- than it did in the past.

- approachably
- approached
- approach
- approachable

17. Now that the annual conference is finished, the planning committee will hold meetings ----- often.

- below
- less
- decreased
- lower

18. Before you distribute the report, ask Ms. Burns to check that ----- has all the necessary information.

- them
- our
- her
- it

19. Brandy can make withdrawals from any Salis Bank branch, but she usually visits the ----- one.

- closing
- closely
- closure
- closest

20. The memo sent by Mr. Lee addressed a few ----- that were discovered during the quarterly inspection.

- issuing
- issue
- issues
- issued

21. Perhaps ----- their greater flexibility, smaller companies may be able to react more quickly to economic fluctuations than larger companies.

- even if
- owing to
- not
- as

22. After the discussions, workshop participants ----- with speakers one-on-one for advice about business planning.

- met
- will meet
- meeting
- have met

23. As a special -----, we will give current members one free month of membership when one of their friends purchases a one-year membership.

- interest
- retail
- incentive
- appearance

24. ----- qualify for this program, you must refer a first-time Aquaville member.

- In spite of
- As soon as
- Instead of
- In order to

25. Mayweather cards ----- as full or partial payment for any item available at our stores.

- use
- using
- can be used
- to use

26. Several famous pieces of sculpture are displayed in the ----- of City Hall.

- surrounding
- standing
- vicinity
- condition

27. Aurora Furnishings is finding it difficult to make a profit in its ----- competitive market.

- increases
- increased
- increasingly
- increase