

EF 3rd upper – pg. 23-24

Pg. 23

1. The company decided to _____ [wycofać się] the product from the Russian market.
2. The PM was _____ [oskarżony] of lying [2 options]. That's why some people call him Pinocchio.
3. There was not enough _____ [dowody] to put the corrupt CEO in prison.
4. They were asked to _____ [zbadać, prowadzić dochodzenie] the post-vaccine complications.
5. The police _____ [przesłuchiwiali] him for many hours.
6. The _____ [włamanie] was even more problematic for them because they didn't have any insurance.

Pg. 24

1. There were no _____ [świadkowie] of the car crash.
2. Fox News is believed to be a bit _____ [stronniczy]
3. The CEO of Orlen and the PM _____ [zderzyli się] in the struggle for power.
4. After working for the company for 5 years, she decided to _____ [odejść] DO NOT USE THE WORD "LEAVE"
5. They had been dating for just a month before they decided to _____ [rozejść się]
6. The leaflet gave a good and _____ [dokładny] description of each landmark.