

3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the second Berlin Crisis (1958-1961) for the development of the Cold War.

(8)

FIRST THING'S FIRST!

TIME-EVENT-FOCUS

Decide what the time frame is, the event it is asking about, then the focus of the question. This will help you remain laser focused on the question.

TASK

Below are some events that are relevant to the question. Match them up to build a sense of importance.

A. A US U2 spy plane is shot down over the USSR.

This humiliated the USSR as it showed people were willing to risk

B. Around 140 people were killed trying escape East Germany

US Army presence in Berlin was increased

C. Khrushchev issued his ultimatum

Talks were abandoned.

D. The Berlin Wall is built, guards are placed at checkpoints

Cooperation between the USA and the USSR seems to be

E. Camp David Summit

The USA would not give in to Khrushchev's demands.

Relevant? A.

B.

C.

D.

E.

EVENT

WHAT DIFFERENCE DID IT MAKE?

RELEVANT?

Vienna Conference

JFK appointed General Clay to Berlin as an ambassador

