Activity 1.3.4

Match each part with its correct function.

Parts	Functions
defining the function	writing the function name to use it in the code function arguments	use a name that describes what the function does function code	information that can be passed in the function to use them in the code returned value	a block of code inside the function calling the function	value returned when the function is executed

LIVEWORKSHEETS