

My favorite breakfast in the morning

My name is Matilda Ramsay, and I'm thirteen years old. I'm from Liverpool, in the UK. My favorite breakfast in the morning is orange juice, pancakes and coffee with milk. I don't like the typical British breakfast! I don't like sausages, I hate bacon and eggs in mornings. My parents love the traditional British breakfast, they usually drink black tea and apple juice. They eat , sausages, fried eggs, potatoes, toasts with jam and black pudding. I don't know why they like these meals so early!!
