Read the sentences below and rewrite them using comparatives As-As and adjectives derived from the words in bold.

- Rainy days and sad children can generate similar amounts of depression.

Rainy days are as depressing as sad children.

1. Apples have similar health benefits as vegetables like spinach.

2. When it is very hot outside, swimming helps to refresh the body, much like a cold drink.

3. "I remember the challenge of solving a complex puzzle, it was similar to learning a new language".

4. "There are two things that I absolutely need every morning: my smartphone and my morning coffee".

5. Writing a novel can give you the level of satisfaction that is possible when you paint a masterpiece.

6. Public transportation is friendly with the ecosystem, but a bicycle is much more.

7. Sleeping late or going to the beach are good ideas to relax.

8. The excitement you get when you travel to a new country can be compared with the excitement of meeting new people.

9. When you need some comfort, eating chocolate chip cookies can help you like a hug from a friend.

10. Riding a rollercoaster and watching horror movies thrill most people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS