Put one word which can be used appropriately in all three sentences.

_____

1. He's just _____ his job in so I don't know what he'll do now!

2. It was rush hour so the trains were absolutely _____.

3. Please make sure you get your suitcase _____ and ready to take downstairs by 1pm

_____

1. In the _____ term, there is very little chance of funding for further research into this matter.

2. There will be a _____ break after the next lecture to give students the chance to grab a coffee.

3. After climbing to the top of the stairs, the elderly professor was rather ____ of breath.

_____

1. During the concert, Tori suffered an unexpected _____ of memory for a few minutes.

2. The owners do not accept any responsibility for _____ or damage to the vehicles parked in this car park.

3. When Jason set up his own business, he expected to make a _____ for the first few

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____

1. First you have to _____ the eggs into the bowl.

2. We must do something about filling that _____ in the wall before it lets in rain.

3. She's amazing - she managed to _____ the problem as soon as I gave it to her!

_____

1. The country was _____ into chaos by the transport strike.

2. The restaurant is now closed so if you don't leave I will have you _____ out.

3. After he spoke the debate was _____ open to audience.

LIVEWORKSHEETS