PASSIVE VOICE

Present Perfect

• Read the sentences and change the active voice sentences to passive voice form using present perfect.

1.The police have arrested the suspect in the murder case.

_____

2.The killer has left behind a trail of clues for the investigators.

_____

3. The forensic team hasn't gathered crucial evidence from the crime scene.

_____

4.The witnesses have provided valuable information about the murder.

_____

5.The forensic experts have examined the evidence.

_____

6. The prosecutor has built a strong case against the alleged murderer.

_____

7. Law enforcement has not identified the murderer responsible.

_____

8. The police have not apprehended a suspect.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS