

PASSIVE VOICE

Present Perfect

- Read the sentences and change the active voice sentences to passive voice form using present perfect.

1. The police have arrested the suspect in the murder case.

---

2. The killer has left behind a trail of clues for the investigators.

---

3. The forensic team hasn't gathered crucial evidence from the crime scene.

---

4. The witnesses have provided valuable information about the murder.

---

5. The forensic experts have examined the evidence.

---

6. The prosecutor has built a strong case against the alleged murderer.

---

7. Law enforcement has not identified the murderer responsible.

---

8. The police have not apprehended a suspect.

---