Noor is learning about bias in data training sets.

Identify the biased data in this training data set for a fruit classification system. Remember, data is biased when it is not accurate.