This morning, our teacher took us to the science museum. It was the first time that I had visited a museum and I thought it 1 _____ so much fun. I learned many new things about different animals. The first room we visited was the dinosaur room. They lived millions of years 2 _____. Most of them lived on land, but some dinosaurs flew in the skies.

The next room we visited was the butterfly room. I 3 _____ never seen so many butterflies before. We watched a video about the life cycle of butterflies and learned about how a caterpillar becomes a beautiful butterfly. It was really interesting!

However, my favourite room was the chicken room. I 4 _____ not know that chickens are related to dinosaurs! Most of the chickens in the room were very friendly. They even came up to me and let me hug 5 _____. Now I want to raise a chicken as a pet, but I am not sure if my parents will let me.

Hi Sue,

How are you doing? Last Sunday, my dad took my brother and me to our grandparents' farm in his car. My grandparents live on a farm near the sea. I love it very 1 _____ because there are so many exciting things to see and to do at their farm. Last Tuesday, my brother and I rode horses for the first time. I rode the oldest horse and my brother rode the youngest one. 2 _____ horse was much faster than mine.

Yesterday, my grandfather showed us three of their new baby horses. They were only 4 days 3 _____ and were very cute. They had pretty brown eyes and made funny noises. My grandfather still hasn't named the baby horses 4 _____, so he wanted me to think of names for them. I was thinking of calling them Moon, Star and Sun. What do you think? 5 _____ you have any better names for the baby horses?

Much love,
Helen

Today I went to the Natural History Museum with my classmates and my teacher. I thought it 1. _____ so interesting! There was lots of information to find out about the animals that lived a very long time 2. _____. They are all extinct now, but in the museum, it felt like they were living in the room!

My favourite dinosaur was the T-rex. It was 3. _____ big as a real dinosaur. It sounded and moved just like a real dinosaur as well. Some of my classmates were really scared when the dinosaur roared. They ran away. It was so funny!

4. _____ were also many other types of dinosaurs. Some of them only ate plants and leaves and did not eat any meat at all. Before coming to the museum, I didn't know that some dinosaurs could fly. My teacher told me that these dinosaurs had wings, just 5. _____ birds, and today's birds are part of the dinosaur family. That's an interesting idea!

Last week, my family and I visited Egypt. When we first arrived, I 1 _____ not like it very much because it was very hot and dry. But then I quickly fell in love with the country. There are lots 2 _____ things to see and do. We stayed in a hotel in the city 3 _____ the first three days. We visited many shops in the markets and ate out at different restaurants every night. We saw many people from all over the world.

My favourite place was the pyramids. I 4 _____ a camel across the desert and we camped in a tent overnight. We saw the sun set on the pyramids. 5 _____ a beautiful sight it was! We also went to the Red Sea and I got to swim with the dolphins. It was so great!

I think Egypt is a great place to go on holiday.
