

4 ★ Fill in the gaps with the correct relative pronoun or adverb.

Arachnophobia, 1) is the fear of spiders, is quite common. People 2) suffer from this phobia experience panic attacks 3) they see spiders. Their heart rate goes up; they feel dizzy and start to shake. This phobia also interferes with their everyday lives. Arachnophobes check for webs 4) they enter a room. They are afraid to open wardrobes, get into the shower and even put on their shoes, because they are places 5) spiders love to hide. Luckily, however, there is a treatment. Sufferers can slowly confront their fear through pictures. Today, there are even video games with animated spiders 6) can help cure the phobia!

