MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THEIR DEFINITIONS

Be good with one's hands	Be able to to understand how machines work
Be mechanically inclined	Be good at recognizing, remembering, and imitating musical sounds
Have a head for figures	Have the ability to use one's hands to make or do things.
Have an ear for music	Be able to express one's ideas and opinions well.
Have an eye for detail	Be good at mathematical calculations
Have a good intuitive sense	Be able to draw conclusions based on feelings rather than facts.
Have a way with words	Be good at seeing or paying attention to things that others don't usually notice.
Have a way with (people)	Have a natural skill or ability to do something well.
Have a knack for (learning languages)	Have a special ability to work well with someone or something, for example, plants, children, or animals.

LIVEWORKSHEETS