AN INTERESTING JOB

Journalists do a very important job because they help us learn more about what is going on in the world.

Journalists 1. _____ for newspapers, magazines, websites, radio stations or television stations. Some journalists focus their reporting on specific subjects, such as politics, business, technology or art.

However, 2. _____ journalists are expected to have a wide range of knowledge. Good communication is very important 3. _____ journalism, therefore most journalists are good listeners. Journalists must be able to research and write an article 4. _____ is easy to read or to announce, in a strong, clear voice, a story on the radio, television or Internet that is simple to understand.

Journalists often work very hard, 5. _____ have to work on the weekends and during the holidays, too. They find 6. _____ what's happening all around the world and report the news to the whole country.

Perhaps you'd like to 7. _____ a journalist? Firstly, you will need to 8. _____ to college and learn about the job. Once you're there, you must study hard, read a lot and be 9. _____ to take on new challenges. Secondly, you need to be interested in people and what's going on in the world around us. It's an interesting job, 10. _____ it?

HAMBURGERS

A hamburger is a sandwich with cooked ground beef between two bread rolls. It also (1) _____ tomato, cheese, and different sauces. Both children and adults in many countries (2) _____ eating hamburgers but many people do not know the history (3) _____ this food.

Interestingly, a hamburger does not have ham. In fact, the burger got (4) _____ name from the German town of Hamburg. This town is famous for its steak. When German people (5) _____ and (6) _____ in the United States, they brought along the hamburger steak. In 1904, at the St.Louis World's Fair, people put hamburger steaks on small round bread rolls and sold them for the first time. (7) _____ the taste was so delicious, it quickly became a popular American food. Then, the first fast-food restaurant McDonald's (8) _____ California decided to choose burgers as the main item on its menu. In the 1960s, there were (9) _____ McDonald's restaurants in the USA.

McDonald's was an important part of every place in the USA. Many other fast-food restaurants also sold hamburgers but McDonald's alone sold millions of burgers a year. Today, you can see McDonald's around the world. The chef in each country creates a lot of different foods on the menu but hamburgers are always the (10) _____ -selling of all time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIFE OF FISH

Female fish can lay hundreds ...of... eggs. There's a bag of food called the yolk inside each egg. The unborn baby fish (1) _____ the yolk to grow bigger and (2) _____. Fish often hide their eggs because many other animals like to eat fish eggs. Some species of shark lay their eggs in a hard egg case to keep the eggs safe (3) _____ they hatch.

Life is very dangerous for young fish. (4) _____ of them can't swim well. They often float into colder water or places where there's no food. Also, (5) _____ predators, like seal, frogs, and other fish, hunt them. This is the reason (6) _____ fish lay so many eggs. A large female tuna fish can lay up to six million eggs at one time, but only about two of these will grow (7) _____ adult tuna.

Most fish will never see their parents because they swim away (8) _____ they have laid their eggs. The young fish have to find food for (9) _____ so that they can grow bigger. They eat small plants and insect eggs. Most small fish (10) _____ into adults in just a few months, but whale sharks do not grow into adults until they are 25 years old.

LIVEWORKSHEETS