

Present Simple			Present Continuous
I run.	Do I run?	I don't run.	I am running.	Am I running?	I am not running.
You run.	Do you run?	You don't run.	You are running.	Are you running?	You aren't running.
She runs.	Does she run?	She doesn't run.	She is running.	Is she running?	She isn't running.
He runs.	Does he run?	He doesn't run.	He is running.	Is he running?	He isn't running.
It runs.	Does it run?	It doesn't run.	It is running.	Is it running?	It isn't running.
We run.	Do we run?	We don't run.	We are running.	Are we running?	We aren't running.
You run.	Do you run?	You don't run.	You are running.	Are you running?	You aren't running.
They run.	Do they run?	They don't run.	They are running.	Are they running?	They aren't running.
SOMETIMES, USUALLY, NEVER, ALWAYS, RARELY, OCCASIONALLY, EVERY DAY, EVERY MONDAY, ON TUESDAYS, ONCE A YEAR...			NOW, THESE DAYS, THIS (SATURDAY) AT THE MOMENT, TODAY

Choose the correct item - Present Simple or Present Continuous.

1. She _____ (play) tennis now.
2. _____ we _____ (eat) sweets on Mondays?
3. She _____ (go) there every week.
4. Our students _____ (have) maths every Tuesday.
5. I always _____ (do) my homework after school.
6. _____ Tom _____ (speak) to you at the moment?
7. He _____ (not do) exercises today.
8. She never _____ (ask) silly questions.
9. _____ you _____ (watch) a film now?
10. The dogs _____ (not usually eat) cucumbers.