

Saying what someone does or doesn't do all the time

we DON'T laugh all the time

I laugh all the time .

He laughS all the time

No, she DOESN'T laugh all the time

On a appris à conjuguer un verbe à la forme.
 On commence par le sujet. Juste après , on ajoute l'auxiliaire....., il indique que le verbe qui va suivre doit être conjugué à.
 C'est seulement après DON'T (DOESN'T) qu'arrive le.....
 Il n'a aucune terminaison, on dit qu'il est à.

Je complète les phrases ci-dessous en conjuguant le verbe à la forme négative

- a. I sleep all the time but my brotherall the time.
- b. You work all the time but we.....all the time.
- c. Her children laugh all the time but she.....all the time.
- d. You are late (=en retard)but I.....all the time.
- e. My cat fights all the time but your cats.....all the time.
- f. I read all the time but youall the time.
- g. I am sad all the time but Mrs Bucket.....all the time.
- h. My parents run all the time but your parents.....all the time.
- i. Kate listens to music all the time but her best friend.....all the time.
- j. Violet does karate all the time but Mike.....all the time.
- k. Charlie is quiet all the time but Augustus.....all the time.