

Name _____

Adjectives

Complete each sentence by using the correct degree of the adjective in brackets.

1. The _____ man was called to assist in moving the heavy box. (strong)
2. Mummy sells the _____ clothes and jewellery. (expensive)
3. Mr and Mrs Lloyd were the _____ dancers on the floor. (graceful)
4. Sales this year were _____ than last year. (profitable)
5. Today is _____ than yesterday. (bad)
6. A recorder is an _____ instrument to play. (easy)
7. Kim has several pretty dresses but Kelly has even _____ than she. (many)
8. The more you study, the _____ you will become. (smart)
9. Sue is _____ than her big sister. (clever)
10. The goats crossed the _____ of the two bridges. (narrow)
11. Rhianna is arguably the _____ singer in the world. (famous)

In each of the following sentences is an error with the adjective.
Write the error and correction in the box provided.

1. Cookies are more easier to bake than cakes.
2. The player grabbed the thinnest end of the rope.
3. That is the worse story I have ever heard.
4. The greedy girl chose the candies which looked sweeter.
5. Colin is the tallest of the twin bothers.
6. What is the difficultest thing about Covid19?
7. Among the six of us, my car is the faster.
8. Mr. Trump is most richest man in the world.
9. "Is the shallowest end of the pool?" asked Hazel.

Errors	Corrections
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.	