

Input Device Matching

Instructions: Match the devices to the correct function

Input Device	Function
Keyboard	This device allows the user to take photos and store them digitally to be transferred to a computer later.
Mouse	This device is found commonly in stores and users a laser beam to read codes.
Touch pad	This device contains keys that users press.
Scanner	A pointing device used mostly for games.
Barcode Reader	A pointing device with two buttons and a scroll wheel.
Microphone	Small, flat, rectangular device used to control the pointer. Sensitive to touch and press.
Joystick	This device converts hard copy documents into digital data (soft copy).
Digital Camera	Accepts user voice, sound, or music input into the computer by speaking into the device.