Instructions: Read the paragraph below and choose the best answers

You turn a year older, and friends sing a certain song to you. The story of "Happy Birthday" goes back to over one hundred years ago. In 1893 a teacher named Patty Smith Hill and her sister Mildred published a book called Song Stories for Kindergarten. The first song in the book had four lines, and it was called "Good Morning to All." Patty soon wrote new words to this tune, and it became the popular "Happy Birthday" song still sung today. People sing it in many languages around the world.

1. The main idea of this paragraph is

- A Celebrating Birthdays
- C Kindergarten songs
- B The story of "Happy Birthday".
- D worldwide birthday song

2. A supporting detail is

- A Mildred Hill was a church organist.

Proper Nouns: Recognize the proper nouns and write them correctly on the line.

halloween is celebrated each year on october 31.

There are many activities and some people don't sleep much because they go to bed very late. Every year, halloween falls on a different day of the week.

If Halloween falls on a monday, everyone is tired on tuesday.

But if Halloween falls on a friday, you can wake up late on saturday.

halloween celebration is fairly new, though it is often mixed with older traditions.

This is especially true in the united states, where the holiday was not widely celebrated until the 1800s.

Many irish settlers came to the united states in the 1800s.

They brought their halloween traditions with them, including jack-o'-lanterns and a mumming.

Slowly, more and more people celebrated halloween.

halloween today looks very different from celebrations of the 1950s, the 1800s, and the samhain festival of the ancient elts.

Some places have their own festivals and celebrations. For example, in a small town in Kansas, there's a special event called neewollah (halloween spelled backwards) where there's a talent show, carnival rides, live music, and three parades.
