

AMBULANCES

Read the text. Choose the right words for the gaps.

There are many cars on (0) _____ streets in towns and cities. The people in them all want to (1) _____ somewhere quickly. But (2) _____ when the streets in a city are full (3) _____ cars, the people in the cars can hear a noise. It is a loud noise but it is not a strange noise. Everyone knows it, the noise is the sound of the ambulance, the big white car that takes people (4) _____ are ill to hospital. All the cars in the street stop, the ambulance (5) _____ to get to the hospital quickly. There are usually three people in an ambulance. There is a driver in the front, and a doctor at the back. The third person (6) _____ help - he is sick. There is a bed in the back with the doctor - this is for the who is ill. The bed is there (7) _____ people can lie down. The person in the ambulance sometimes has to stay in hospital for (8) _____ one day, sometimes it is for more. (9) _____ the ambulance gets to the hospital, there are many people there to help. There are doctors and nurses who can make the sick person (10) _____ again..

