SURVIVAL IN THE JUNGLE

Juliane Koepcke was seventeen when she travelled with her mother by plane [1]_____ the Amazon rainforest to their home [2]_____ Peru. There was bad weather, and suddenly the plane started to fall from the sky, and crashed [3]_____ the jungle. When Juliane opened her eyes, she wasn't in the plane. She was [4]_____ the rainforest, and she was alone. She shouted for her mother, but she couldn't find her. There wasn't much food – just some sweets. Juliane needed to get [5]_____ the rainforest quickly. She started to walk through the jungle. She climbed [6]_____ tree trunks and crawled [7]_____ bushes. She couldn't see well because her glasses were missing. So she listened for the sound of water.

Eventually, Juliane arrived [8]_____ a river and she started to walk [9]_____ it. At night she stayed in a tree or [10]_____ the ground [11]_____ the river. She was tired and very hungry and she couldn't travel fast. After ten days, she arrived at a hut. It belonged to three rainforest workers. When they returned to their hut, they were very surprised! A seventeen-year-old girl was inside!

Now there is a documentary, a film and a book about Juliane's amazing story of survival [12]_____ the jungle.
