Making Plans for the Weekend

Sarah is excited about the weekend. She wants to spend time with her friends and family. On Friday evening, Sarah is going to the movies with her best friend, Lisa. They plan to watch a new funny movie called "Smile City." The movie starts at 7:30 PM, so they will meet at the theater at 7:00 PM. They'll grab some popcorn and find seats.

On Saturday, Sarah's family is having a big picnic in the nearby park. It's a beautiful place with tall trees. They will have lunch at 1:00 p.m. Sarah's mom is making sandwiches, and her dad is bringing fruit. They will play games like frisbee and soccer on the grass and enjoy the outdoors. Sarah is bringing her dog, Max, to run and play in the park.

Sunday is a special day for Sarah. It's her cousin's birthday. The party will be at her cousin's home, and it starts at 3:00 p.m. Sarah wants to buy a nice gift for her cousin. She will go shopping in the morning. She plans to get a beautiful card and a present. After shopping, Sarah will relax at home for a while. She will read a book or watch her favorite TV show on the couch. At 6:00 PM, she will start preparing a delicious cake for her cousin's birthday party. She hopes everyone will enjoy the cake she bakes.

Sarah is really looking forward to a fun and busy weekend with her friends and family. She's making sure she spends her time wisely and has a great time on Friday, at the park on Saturday, and at her cousin's home on Sunday.
