Iffah's New Pet

Iffah finished her extra class at half past two and walked home. At five o'clock, she rode her bike to the park. She arrived at a quarter past 5. Iffah liked to go to the park which has a beautiful garden. She loved to see the beautiful flowers in the garden. There were pink, white and red hibiscuses, pink roses and big, yellow sunflowers. She loved the sunflowers the most.

Then, she played at the playground. She heard some noise coming from under a black bridge. She went near the bridge and saw a cute white cat in a brown box. She tried to look for its mother but she couldn't find it. She carried the poor cat out of the box. At first, it was afraid and tried to run but Iffah petted its body slowly. The cat felt safe and became calm.

Iffah took the cat home. She gave it some milk and food. The hungry cat quickly drank the milk. Iffah put clothes in a box and put the cat in it. The cat looked happy in its new home. Iffah wanted to keep the cat as her pet. Her mother agreed and Iffah was very happy.

| A | Emma I've been running for two years. I only run 1 or 2 kilometres before, but now I run about 10 kilometres. At school, I've joined a sport club. I have never met any of the members before, but now they are my friends. When my father was younger, he was a good runner, but he stopped after breaking his leg. I need to buy new running shoes which will be just a simple pair. I don't believe that the more expensive ones will help you run faster. |
| B | Mia Most evenings, I go skating in the park. I know that's a lot, but the park is only a minute or two away from my house, and I usually spend two hours per week there if my friends are around. My cousin, who is quite good at skateboarding, sometimes joins us and teaches me a few new moves. I'm getting better all the time! |
| C | Charlotte My best friend asked me to start wall climbing, and now we both do it. My mother drives us once or twice a month to our favourite hill, but I'd like to do it once a week. I had no idea you needed so many tools when I first started. It isn't a cheap sport either! But I love it. |

A Emma

B Mia

C Charlotte
