

- Complete the emails with the verbs in the correct form: present simple, imperative, or will + infinitive.

Time: 23.05
Sender: Corinne
Subject: Final exams!

Hi Elena,

How's it going? I'm studying hard, but I need a break. We could meet tomorrow night for dinner. I <sup>1</sup> 'll call (call) you when I <sup>2</sup> _____ (finish) class tomorrow, OK?

Love, Corinne

Time: 23.07
Sender: Elena
Subject: RE: Final exams!

Hi Corinne,

I'm studying too. My first exam is tomorrow afternoon. I'm really worried about it. OK for tomorrow night, but not too early. I <sup>3</sup> _____ (text) you when the exam <sup>4</sup> _____ (finish).

Love, Elena

Time: 23.08
Sender: Corinne
Subject: RE: Final exams!

OK. <sup>5</sup> _____ (come) to my place as soon as you <sup>6</sup> _____ (can). We can phone for a takeaway pizza or something.

Time: 23.09
Sender: Elena
Subject: RE: Final exams!

OK, but <sup>7</sup> _____ (not phone) until I <sup>8</sup> _____ (get) there. I might be late. I've been thinking, if you <sup>9</sup> _____ (be) free when all our exams <sup>10</sup> _____ (be) over in June, why don't we go away for a few days?

Time: 23.10
Sender: Corinne
Subject: RE: Final exams!

Great idea! But I <sup>11</sup> _____ (not be able to) go away unless I <sup>12</sup> _____ (pass) all the exams! We can talk about it when we <sup>13</sup> _____ (meet) here tomorrow night.

Time: 23.11
Sender: Elena
Subject: RE: Final exams!

OK. Time to go back to work. If I <sup>14</sup> _____ (not study) a bit more tonight, I <sup>15</sup> _____ (not have) any chance of passing biology tomorrow. See you tomorrow, and wish me luck!