

Vocabulary

- 1 Fill in: remote, worshipped, invisible, invaders, feat, preserved, unique, properties, consult, offerings.
- Planes are needed to transport supplies to areas in the far north.
 - Ancient civilisations are known to have gods in sacred shrines.
 - Many Hindu temples were destroyed by Islamic in the 8th century BC.
 - were made to the gods to honor them and ask for their blessing.
 - The temple of Rameses II in Egypt is quite a magnificent of craftsmanship.
 - The managers of the business firm frequently their lawyers for legal advice.
 - Artists visit Greenland for the island's atmosphere and magnificent surroundings.
 - It is a beautiful town with a picturesque harbour and well- buildings.
 - The peaks of the mountains were from down below because of the fog.
 - We value herbs for their taste, but they also have healing

- 2 Use the words in the list to complete the exchanges.

ruins

lost

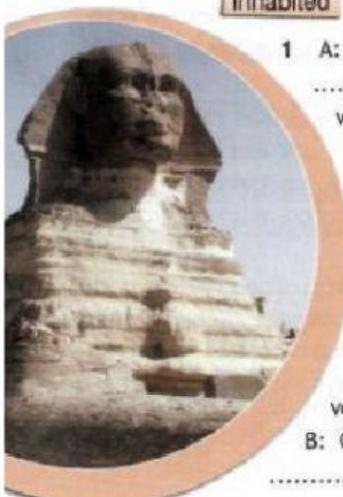

honour

carve

inhabited

mystery

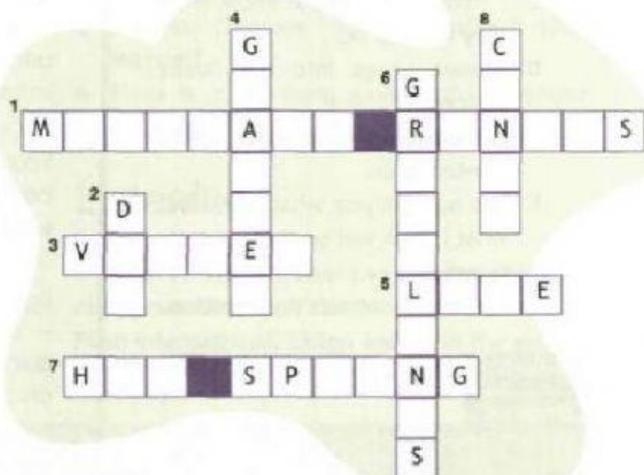

miss

- A: If you go to Egypt, don't the opportunity to visit the Sphinx.
B: You bet I won't!
- A: I want to become an archaeologist someday.
B: That's great! You might even discover some ancient
- A: Those tribesmen are very protective of their land.
B: Of course. Their ancestors it for centuries.

- A: Has Plato's city of Atlantis been found?
B: No. The location still remains a
- A: Native American Indians totem poles as a way of telling stories about the Indian culture.
B: Really? I didn't know that.
- A: Henry, do you know why the Lincoln Memorial was built?
B: Yes, I do. To Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President of the United States.

- 3 Complete the crossword.

Across

- The Rocky Mountains are a great chain of extending from British Columbia into New Mexico.
- In 2007, a landslide covered Russia's famous of Geysers.
- Baikal is in Russia.
- While in Japan, the tourists bathed in a popular

Down

- A was built to prevent future flooding of the town.
- A is a large, slow-moving river of ice.
- cover almost 50% of the land area of Africa.
- About 11,000 ships pass through the Corinth each year.