

Activity 1. Drag the words to the pictures

board games

Africa

a skirt

a school uniform

a shirt

Activity 2. Read the text and choose the correct sentences

Mali is eight. Mali is from Africa. Mali goes to school. His school starts at 8 o'clock in the morning because it's very hot in Africa. There are 20 pupils in Mali's class. They wear a school uniform. They wear blue shirts or blouses and grey skirts or shorts. Before classes they sing a song or play board games.

The pupils have classes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. On Mondays Mali has five lessons. On Wednesdays he has Reading, Art, Music and English. He's good at English. It's easy and fun. Mali likes Writing, too. He likes writing stories, but it's not easy. On Thursdays he has Maths. He doesn't like Maths. It's hard. He has lots of Maths homework. Mali likes IT. It's his favourite lesson. Mali likes working on the computer and playing computer games. His favourite day is Friday. He has PE on Fridays. He likes running, jumping and playing basketball. After classes Mali plays football and goes home.

At the weekend Mali doesn't go to school. He has fun with his friends. They ride their bikes and play games. Also, Mali helps his parents. They grow vegetables.

1 Mali goes to school in Africa.
Mali goes to school in America.

2 Mali wears a school uniform.
Mali doesn't wear a school uniform.

3 Mali is good at Maths.
Mali is good at English.

4 Mali likes doing homework.
Mali likes writing stories.

Activity 3. Choose the correct words

1. Mali's school starts early in the morning because it's cold / hot .
2. Before classes Mali sings / listens a song.
3. Mali's favourite lesson is English / IT .
4. At the weekend Mali helps his parents / plays computer games .

Activity 4. Give the answers to the questions

1. When does Mali's school start? ☐
2. How many pupils are there in Mali's class? ☐
3. What does Mali do before classes? ☐
4. What is Mali's favourite day? ☐
5. How old is Mali? ☐

- Friday
- At 8 o'clock
- 8 years old
- 20
- Plays board games