Thanksgiving is a holiday full of _____. It always takes place in the_____. It´s time to give thanks for the _____and all the food it brings.

The History of Thanksgiving

In 1620, a group of people left _____ and came to _____. They later became known as the _____.

Pilgrims met _____ who introduced them to the native people called _____. They taught the Pilgrims how to catch _____ and how to grow food like _____.

They share a _____ with the Native people. This celebration would become the _____ Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving is a special holiday is all about _____ time with _____ and _____.

Thanks giving have plenty of dishes like cranberry sauce _____, _____ and gravy.

Desert is also important . _____ pie is a thanksgiving favorite. _____ and pecan pie are popular too.

Another Thanksgiving tradition is making a _____.

This “horn of plenty” is a _____ that represents the harvest.

Many cities host Thanksgiving _____. Some cities also host a raced called _____.

_____ is a big Thanksgiving tradition for some families.

Thanksgiving have some _____ traditions too. Each year the _____of U.S. _____at least one _____.

Other Celebrations

Germany has _____.

Japan celebrates _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS