1 Put a mark (^) where yet should go in each line.

Language focus

Have you put on your boots^?
My boots? No, I haven't. I haven't done that.
Have you packed your bag?
My bag? No, I haven't. I haven't done that.

2 Make questions.

1 dog / Have / walked / yet / you / the / ?
Have you walked the dog yet?

2 tried / you / bike / Have / out / new / yet / Mia's / ?

3 seen / you / new / Treasure Island / the / Have / film / yet / ?

4 you / yet / your / tidied / Have / room / ?

3 Read and write answers.

1 Have you read the last Harry Potter book yet? (No / see the film)
No, I haven't read the last Harry Potter book yet, but I've already seen the film.

2 Have you been to New York yet? (No / go to Los Angeles)

3 Have you fed the cat yet? (No / tidy bedroom)

4 Have the Bensons sold their house yet? (No / sell car)

4 Look and write.

1 Tom has already had a bath, but Harry hasn't had a bath yet.
2 The Dolphin
3 He
4 She

LIVEWORKSHEETS