

Linking words

Combine the sentences as in the examples.

Peter is hungry.

Peter is eating a sandwich.

→ SO = CAUSE / EFFECT / CONSEQUENCE

Peter is hungry, so he is eating a sandwich.

He can't drink the coffee.

The coffee is very hot.

→ BECAUSE = REASON

He can't drink the coffee because it's very hot.

He is sick at home.

He can't go to school.

_____, so _____

He is afraid.

He heard a noise.

_____ because _____

We are sad.

We lost the match.

_____ because _____

He is late for work.

The boss is angry.

_____, so _____

He takes medicine.

He gets better.

_____, so _____