

Complete the sentences using ONE WORD

MAGAZINE – ENCYCLOPEDIA – NEWSPAPER – COOKBOOK – MANUAL – BLOG –
COMICS – POETRY – PLAYS – MANUAL – GUIDEBOOK – NOVEL

He's published some articles on a monthly _____	I always buy the Sunday _____
I usually read restaurants reviews on a _____	I love _____ because they're full of pictures to illustrate the story.
They're planning to stage some Shakespeare's _____	You can buy a travel _____ at any tourist centre for $10.
_____ is a large collection of information about different topics and in alphabetical order.	I am reading a lovely romantic _____ now.
This _____ contains lots of great recipes.	I have to admit I never read instruction _____

☆☆ Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

cookbook • encyclopaedia • guidebook •
graphic novel • magazine • newspapers • short story • textbook

- 1 A is a long story with pictures.
- 2 You consult a when you want to prepare a particular dish.
- 3 Wikipedia is a popular online
- 4 A is useful when you're visiting a new place.
- 5 Gateway is the name of my English
- 6 My dad reads a weekly about cars.
- 7 It doesn't take long to read a
- 8 El País and La Vanguardia are two Spanish

Complete the sentences using ONE WORD

FAIRY – SCIENCE FICTION – FICTION – AUTOBIOGRAPHY – HISTORICAL – BIOGRAPHY - DETECTIVE – FANTASY – MYSTERY – HORROR – ROMANCE – THRILLER – YOUNG ADULT

_____ tales usually involve imaginary creatures and magic.	I prefer reading _____. I don't really like historical books.
I really like _____ books and exhibitions.	Thomas knew him well, that's why he wrote his _____.
There's always a crime, often murder, in _____ fiction.	Many celebrities write their _____.
I don't like _____. I prefer reading about real things.	I really enjoy _____ books and trying to discover who the murderer is.
I usually don't read _____ books because I have nightmares if I do.	I love reading _____ and then watching the films, too.
This is a _____ _____ book about life on Mars.	She's now writing a _____ about a lawyer who's murdered.
She's twenty but still enjoys reading _____ novels.	This book isn't based on real people – it's pure _____.

★ Choose the correct genre.

- 1 The His Dark Materials series by Philip Pullman is an example of fantasy/guidebook.
- 2 A biography/An autobiography is a description of someone's life written by another person.
- 3 A fairy tale/Historical fiction is a story for children with imaginary people and animals.
- 4 Frankenstein is a detective/horror story.
- 5 Thrillers/Romances are very exciting and often frightening.
- 6 Science fiction/Crime fiction describes an imaginary world in the future.
- 7 YA/Historical fiction is specifically for teenagers.
- 8 In a fantasy/mystery, there is usually a puzzle to solve. The ending is often surprising.

Complete the sentences using ONE WORD

MASTERPIECE – ENDING - SET - MAIN CHARACTER – AWARD – ADAPTATION - PLOT - STYLE
- TWIST – BESTSELLER – THEMES

A sudden, unexpected change in a story is called a _____.	A book that many people buy is a _____.
The way that someone writes is their _____.	The most important person in the story is the _____.
An author's best work is called their _____.	Has the book won any _____?
The events which form the main storyline in a book or film is the _____.	The story is _____ in London in the 1800s.
The book covers interesting _____ like the environment and endangered species.	Is there a film _____ of the book?
I don't like the _____ much. I wanted Ron to win the championship.	The story is _____ in South America.

☆☆ Complete the book review with the words in the box.

adaptation • awards • bestseller • ending • main character • masterpiece • plot • set • style •
theme • twist

A lesson for all of us

Wonder is the first novel by R. J. Palacio. It's (a) _____ in New York. The (b) _____ is August 'Auggie' Pullman. He's a 10-year-old boy with a medical condition which has left his face deformed. The (c) _____ describes his first year at a 'real' school. Before, his parents had taught him at home. Some of the pupils at the school are not nice to Auggie because he looks different from them. The novel has a happy (d) _____. In an unexpected (e) _____, the school gives Auggie a special prize for his behaviour at the end of the year.

The (f) _____ of the book is accepting people who are different from us and accepting yourself. The novel's (g) _____ is very interesting because different people tell the story. Since Wonder appeared in 2012, it has become a (h) _____ and they made a film (i) _____ of it, in 2017. The novel has won several (j) _____ and some experts have declared that it is a modern (k) _____.

Complete the sentences with the words in the box. Use a dictionary if necessary.

act • chapter • contents page • headline • index • scene

- 1 There's a useful at the back of the book.
- 2 The on the front page said: Bank robbery!
- 3 If you look at the at the beginning, it says the book has three parts.
- 4 Simon knew who the murderer was after reading the first!
- 5 There was a break for drinks after the second of the play.
- 6 There's a great between the two main characters at the end of the play.

☆ Write if the phrasal verbs describe reading (R) or writing (W).

- | | |
|-----------------|-------|
| 1 read on | R / W |
| 2 write down | R / W |
| 3 scroll down | R / W |
| 4 fill in | R / W |
| 5 make up | R / W |
| 6 flick through | R / W |

☆ Choose the correct alternative.

- 1 In some exercises you have to fill in/flick through the gaps.
- 2 Please look over/make up your work before you give it to me.
- 3 Sally wrote the word where but then she made it up/crossed it out and wrote wear.
- 4 When you've finished the page, turn over/read out and continue reading.
- 5 Scroll down/Flick through this magazine to see if you can find any interesting articles.
- 6 Jamie, please read on/read out your answer.
- 7 Can you write down/flick through the number of the router for me?

Complete the sentences using ONE WORD

Flick through	Write down	Read out	Make up
Read on	Read out	Look over	Turn over
Cross out	Fill in	Scroll down	Scroll up _____ any ideas that you've discussed so you can share with us later.

Sarah is really creative. She _____ all sorts of stories.

I'm going to _____. I want to know how the story ends!	When you finish, please _____ your writing and try to improve it.
I didn't have much time so I just _____ the pages and looked at the images.	He's _____ most of his work so there isn't much to assess.
Can you please _____? I've finished reading this part.	Just _____ the page when you finish.
I love it when our teacher _____ stories for us.	I need you to _____ this form for me.
I don't like the _____ much. I wanted Ron to win the championship.	The story is _____ in South America.

Match the phrasal verbs (1-4) to their meaning (a-d).

- | | |
|--------------------|-------------------|
| 1 read up on | 3 note down |
| 2 sum up | 4 dip into |

- a read only small parts (of a book, for example)
- b write something down to remember it
- c give a summary of something
- d learn about a subject by reading a lot about it

Complete the sentences with the phrasal verbs

- 1 Have you got a pen to my phone number?
- 2 I couldn't read all the book but I had time to it.
- 3 We'll need to Ancient Greece if we want to do this project.
- 4 In the last paragraph of your essay, you should your main idea.