

READING: LANGUAGE COURSE

The people below are looking for an English language course. Read the information about the people and the courses, and choose the best course for each person

A Learn English in Malta!

Forget the awful British climate! Why not do an English course in Malta? Did you know that the island is bilingual? English and Maltese are our two official languages. Our full-time courses are the best in the industry and we can't be beaten on price. Come to Malta to learn in a relaxing English-speaking environment and enjoy a sunny seaside holiday at the same time!

B Take your English to the next level

Learners at BigAppleLearning enjoy ultra-modern classrooms in the heart of New York City. We specialize in helping international students to pass the English language component of university entrance exams. Students can stay with host families in Manhattan – living with an American family is the most effective and enjoyable way to take your English to the next level.

C Study with Shakespeare

Have you ever wondered where Shakespeare's wonderful language comes from? Come and see for yourself! We've been based in Shakespeare's home town of Stratford-upon-Avon for 25 years. Our syllabus reflects our historic setting, with fascinating lectures and local tours as well as language lessons. We also help students to get work placements with local employers in the town.

Scroll down for more info.

D Edinburgh Intensive

At Edinburgh Intensive we guarantee results, and fast. We offer 7-day and 15-day courses with one to one lessons every day of the week. Invest in your future and enjoy the success that you deserve. Browse our website which features our full range of business English courses, as well as cultural events around the city, and trips to the Highlands and Scotland's wonderful beaches.

1. Elena is looking for a location that offers a mixture of history, British culture and language-learning. She'd rather study in a small town than a big city.

A B C D

2. Marta would love to stay somewhere on the coast. Her job is in tourism, so she has to take time off during the winter, but she's worried about going somewhere with bad weather.

A B C D

3. María has 6 months free until her degree course starts. She'd like to study English in a fun location and get to know the locals well at the same time.

A B C D

4. Mohammed wants to improve his English quickly. He needs to get 120 (B2) in the Oxford Test of English for a job he's just applied for. He'd prefer a UK-based school.

A B C D

5. Juan is on a career break and he hasn't got a lot of savings. He is looking for somewhere in the U.K to improve his English and he'd like to get a part-time job to help pay for accommodation.

A B C D

6. Simón has just finished his degree and now he needs to get his English to the right level to study a Masters course in the USA. He'd like to spend time with English-speaking friends or colleagues.

A B C D