

On 2 November 2014, 16-year-old / 16-year old

Alex Christopher LeBouf, get up / is getting up / got up , go / goes / went / goed to church and then to work. It is / was / were just an ordinary Sunday and Alex is / was an ordinary teenager.

He live / lives / lived in Frisco, Texas, USA.

He go / went / goes to school and play /

played football. He had a Twitter / twitter profile with 144 followers / folowers and he work / worked at the local market / supermarket called Super Target.

He was working as a cashier when a teenage girl secretly

take / takes / taked / took a photo of him with her mobile

phone and posted / post / posts it on Twitter.

She thinks / think / thinked / thought he was beautiful / handsome. Six years later the picture of Alex become / becomes / became viral and he have / has / had more than 100,000

Twitter followers. He was now famous Alex from SuperTarget.

Reporters want / wants / wanted / are wanting to talk to him.

He is / are / was / were / am even on CNN.

This new fame / popular / famous had a dark side. People call / calls / called him names and even say / says / says / said they want / wants / wanted to kill him. It was difficult to go to school. His family was scared / scary , too.

