

1. Match the tense to its uses

Will	Future arranged plans (which will happen quite soon)
Be going to	Decisions taken at the moment of speaking
Present continuous	Future arranged plans
Predictions with evidence	Predictions without evidence
	Threats
	Promises
	Offers

2. Read the following sentences and decide if they are correct or not.

- a. I think I won't be at home this afternoon.
- b. He are going travel next week.
- c. She will receives lots of presents for her birthday.
- d. I am going to pursue another course of studies after I finish with my first one.
- e. They are travelling to Brazil in 4 months.
- f. They will not take the blue t-shirt, but the red one.
- g. Do you need help? I am going to carry that bag for you.