Money management - an introduction

Different bank accounts pay different amounts of (1)..... It makes sense to shop around before you open an account.

If your salary doesn't always get you to the end of the month , you'll have to arrange a/an (2).....with your bank, so it's worth being on good terms with your bank manager.

If you're planning to buy a house, you'll probably need to get a /an (3).....

Once again, shop around to get the best deal.

If you're thinking about taking out life (4)....., make sure you talk to an independent financial advisor. They'll give you unbiased advice.

Make sure you know what (5) ..... you're entitled to. If you're on a low income and have a family, you may be surprised how much you'll receive from the state each month.

Even if you're only in your early twenties, it pays to plan for the future. If you can, start paying into a/an (6).....scheme now to ensure you have a comfortable retirement.

It goes without saying that you should try to avoid getting into too much (7)..... Only buy things on credit if you're sure you can afford to pay the monthly instalments.

If you do manage to start saving a little each month, you might want to think about buying some (8) ..... Their value can go down of course, but they can be a good (9) ..... particularly in the mid- to long-term. Many companies pay an annual (10) ..... to shareholders – this can be a welcome source of extra income if the company's doing well.

V. Write one preposition in each gap.

down up away up to out back up down

Dealing with debt

If your debts are mounting (1) ..... and your financial problems are weighing you (2)....., the first thing to do is to stay calm. Sizing (3)..... your financial situation – however painful – is far better than just ignoring it. The next thing to do is to make a list of your monthly outgoings. Break these outgoings (4) ..... into essentials (such as electricity bills and food) and luxuries (such as nights out). Cross the luxuries off – there's no more of them for the time being – and take your essential outgoings (5) ..... from your income. The amount that's remaining is the amount you can afford to pay (6)..... to your creditors each month. Most credit card companies are willing to accept payment in instalments as they know that if you – and they – just let the debit build (7).....indefinitely it will never be paid off. If your essential expenses add up (8).....more than your income, then your situation is more serious and you'll have to consider drastic action either to increase your income or reduce the amount of money you have to pay (9).....each month on essentials.

VI. Read these notes by an economic analyst. Then write sentences about the economy.

Unemployment rate ↓ last month (9% to 8.5%) FTSE index ↑ 6 points yesterday Interest rates ↑ next month (probably) Industrial production steady Inflation ↓ by 1% (3% to 2%)
