

UD 4 – At the Fire Station

Read and choose go, have or get. Then, complete the sentences with the correct verb.

	dinner		home
	up		breakfast
	dressed		home
	lunch		to bed

A firefighter in a blue uniform is standing in front of a mirror, buttoning up his jacket. A reflection of him is visible in the mirror.	I		at half past seven.
A firefighter is driving a silver fire truck on a road with buildings in the background. A car is parked on the side of the road.	I		at quarter to eight.
A firefighter is sitting at a table with a clock on the wall behind him, eating a meal. A woman is standing behind him, also eating.	I		at eight o'clock.
A firefighter is sitting at a table with a clock on the wall behind him, eating a meal. A woman is standing behind him, also eating.	I		at half past eight.
A group of firefighters are sitting around a table in a kitchen, eating a meal together. A clock is visible on the wall.	I		at quarter past twelve.
A firefighter is in a kitchen, standing in front of a counter with various items on it, including a kettle and a clock on the wall.	I		at quarter to six.
A group of firefighters are sitting around a table in a kitchen, eating a meal together. A clock is visible on the wall.	I		at eight o'clock.
A firefighter is lying in bed, looking at an alarm clock on the bedside table. The room is dark, and a window shows a night sky.	I		at quarter to ten.