Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate phrasal verb from the list. Separate the phrasal verb if necessary.

keep out	leave out	let down	look after	look down on
look forward to	look up	look up to	make fun of
made up	mix up

1. I really _____ seeing my family over the holidays. The whole family only gets together once a year, so it's a special occasion.

2. I had to write a report in my world history class about the history of Tajikistan. I didn't know anything about the country, so I had to _____ it _____ online.

3. Ricky said his new girlfriend is a supermodel, but he refuses to introduce us or even show us a picture of her. I don't believe him. I think he _____ the whole thing _____.

4. A lot of people _____ political leaders. They have a lot of power and influence, so people admire them.

5. My best friend _____ me _____ when she didn't show up to my birthday party like she promised.

6. We're asking the general public to _____ of the construction area for safety reasons.

7. You shouldn't _____ someone's weight. Laughing and bullying people about their size is not nice. They might be self-conscious about their bodies and it's not easy to get in shape.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

keep out	leave out	let down	look after	look down on
look forward to	look up	look up to	make fun of
made up	mix up

8. It's never a good idea to _____ people who have less money than you. Just because they don't have much, doesn't mean you're better than them.

9. Can you _____ the baby while I run to the store?

10. A lot of people _____ homophones in English. They sound alike but they're spelled differently and have different meanings. For example, what's the difference between to, too, and two? A lot of people confuse them.

11. I don't like spicy food, so when you cook, please _____ the hot peppers

LIVEWORKSHEETS