How sugar affects the brain (7th term)

Paragraph 1

Leftside Right World
Upside Down World

Name: ..... Last name: ..... Grade: ..... Section: .....

I. Match statements or questions and translations.

Are you craving dessert?		Te imaginé como una persona inteligente.
What happens to you?		Resistieron la presión de sus competidoras.
It was made in China.		Ella duerme con libros amontonados a su alrededor.
I pictured you as an intelligent person		La madre de Sue riega el jardín los viernes.
She sleeps with books piled around her.		¿Se te antoja postre?
They resisted pressure from their competitors.		Fue hecho en China.
Sue's mother waters the garden on Fridays.		¿Qué te sucede?

II. Match English verbs and nouns with their translations.

crave		imaginar	cookie		pastel
happen		regar	candy		postre
make		antojar	cake		boca
picture		resistir	ice cream		galleta
pile		hacer	mouth		cerebro
resist		suceder	brain		helado
water		amontonar	dessert		caramelo

III. Listen and match words you listen:

		crave			cookie			cone
		happen			candy			food
		make			cake			what
		picture			ice cream			why
		pile			mouth			how
		resist			brain			picture
		water			dessert			dessert

LIVEWORKSHEETS

How sugar affects the brain (7th term)

Leftside Right World
Upside Down World

IV. Listen to the words spelled and write them.

	picture

V. Listen and complete the text you hear.

Picture warm,
gooey _____ (cookies),
crunchy _____,
velvety _____,
waffle _____
piled high with ice _____.

cones
candies
cream
cakes
~~cookies~~

Is your mouth _____? Are you _____ dessert?
What _____ in the brain that _____ sugary foods so hard to _____?

happens
makes craving
resist
watering

VI. Listen and read the next sentences and questions

I am not craving dessert.
What happens to you?
It was made in China.
I pictured you as an intelligent person.
She sleeps with books around her.
They resisted pressure from their competitors.
Sue's mother waters the garden on Fridays.

LIVEWORKSHEETS