IDIOMS

• to be in difficulties, especially in serious trouble

• to be very nervous and anxious

• to be or feel ill / sad or lack energy

• to wait / slow down / consider things carefully

• something very easy to do

• to delight, thrill, amaze / impress

• to reveal a secret, usually unintentionally

• immediately, without any delay or hesitation

• to be very expensive

• to play a joke, tease, trick someone in a friendly way

• to be unable to choose between two alternatives

• to act in a crazy or strange way

• to go to bed

• to be eager to hear / listen attentively

• to lose courage to do something you had planned

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS