UNIT 1

VOCABULARY

USING ADVERBS TO ADD DETAIL

A Read the definition. Write the missing letters to form an adverb.

1 in a severe and sudden way

	r	a			i	c

2 in a way that cannot be avoided

	n			i	t		b	l

3 little by little

	r		g		e	s					y

4 without a doubt

u			u			t		o	n

5 in a way that is able to be shown

	e			n	s			a	b

TALKING ABOUT DEVELOPMENTS IN TECHNOLOGY

A Match the clues with an expression from the box.

artificial intelligence (AI)   beta version chatbot   computer-generated speech computer translation   facial recognition image recognition   operating system (OS) virtual assistant   voice activation speech to text   working prototype

1 designed or produced using a computer known as a voice output device translates written text into speech _____	2 part of the study of computer science sometimes called machine intelligence has some qualities that the human mind has _____
3 a computer program designed to have a conversation with a human happens over the internet _____	4 identifies objects by shape and size labels objects and categorizes them used in self-driving cars _____
5 similar to a voice recognition device quicker than manually typing out words useful for people who are driving _____	6 a form of language translation helps people translate language spell checkers are an example _____
7 something at its second stage of development customers are asked to use and test the product product problems are corrected at this stage _____	8 a software that can recognize images uses your face instead of using a password recognizes a digital image _____
9 a set of programs controls the way a computer works controls how the computer memory is used _____	10 a computer program or device understands spoken questions and answers designed to help you make plans _____
11 known as a voice output device translates written text into speech useful for those who cannot speak _____	12 the first example of something designed product is built and tested used to learn from or market to companies _____