When I was in New York, I spend my free time doing activities with my family and friends

Name: _____

I played football with my sisters, after that we went to swim in the pool and we ate delicious food, the next day we had the opportunity to play the piano, because in that city they have a specific place where you can do that, certainly we had so much fun. I Really enjoy listening to music all the time so, that day was not the exception, I went to the cinema with some friends and then they invited me to dance so, I went. The last day I stayed there and to be honest I exercise a lot and a result I couldn't stand the following day.
