

BOOK 3.3

FACIAL EXPRESSIONS

WONDER + DISCOMFORT

Match up!

WONDER	DISCOMFORT

We could not help but marvel at the colossal statue.	I was aching all over	Her performance dazzled the audience	I slept fitfully
I retched violently throwing up all the contents of my lunch	We stood in awestruck silence	We listened in rapt attention to our teacher	Her speech was given a standing ovation from the audience
I coughed so violently that my face turned red		I was jolted awake from my sleep

retched	awestruck
fitful	dazzled
standing ovation

1. Her speech was met with a _____ from the audience.

She was almost deafened by the thunderous applause.

2. I _____ violently, throwing up all the contents of my undigested breakfast.

3. The children stood in _____ silence. They were speechless when the clown made the bunny disappear.

4. Her shiny dress _____ the audience. Everyone stared at her in awe.

5. She had a _____ sleep. She woke up several times during the night.

so violently	aching
rapt	jolted
marvel

6. George groaned in pain as his body was _____ all over from the fight.

7. The children listened in _____ attention to the wondrous tales of the traveller.

8. I coughed _____ that my face turned a crimson red.

9. I was _____ awake from my sleep by a loud knock on the door.

10. We could not help but _____ at the colossal statue.

Did you get $10 WB? I sure did!

