

Choose the correct term!

1., to continue

- to elevate
- to go bald
- to be fond of
- to carry on

2., not to believe something

- to be in charge of
- to give somebody a lift
- to be sceptical of
- to illuminate

3., to like

- to go bald
- to carry on
- to be fond of
- to elevate

4., to be responsible for

- to carry on
- to be in charge of
- to have a reputation for
- to be sceptical of

5., to usually do or be something

- beneath
- to illuminate
- to claim
- to tend to 6., usual

- approach
- whereas
- conventional
- dummy

7., to lose your hair

- to swap opinions
- to go mad
- to go blind
- to go bald

8., under

- between
- whilst
- beneath
- cemetery

9., the act of getting rid of something

- slightly
- troop
- disposal
- distraction

10., extra money given for good service

- tip
- grip
- hood
- guide

11., to lift up

- to claim
- to rest
- to elevate
- to straddle

12., to say that something is true

- to claim
- to elevate
- to scream
- to illuminate

13., have had enough of

- to illuminate
- to be sceptical of
- to give somebody a lift
- to be fed up with 14., a strong decision to do or not to do something

- exposition
- precision
- resolution
- attention

15., to make lighter or brighter

- to illuminate
- to elevate
- to decrease
- to carry on

16., to be known for

- to be in charge of
- to go bald
- to have a reputation for
- to carry on

17., bonnet

- hood
- windshield wiper
- bib
- dummy

18., to take someone somewhere in your car

- to look forward
- to hail a taxi
- to give somebody a lift
- to get rid of 19., soldier

- shoulder
- vital
- trooper
- first-rate

20., not working

- duty period
- to claim
- off duty
- to harm

Choose the correct preposition!

1., apologize

- with somebody for something
- to somebody about something
- to somebody for something
- from somebody about something

2., arrive

- to (a country)
- at (a country)
- in (a country)
- for (a country)

3., depend

- of something
- in something
- from something
- on something

4., remind somebody

- of something
- on something
- about something
- for something

5., to be good
 in something at something
 about something
 with something

6., to be fed up
 with something
 at something
 on something
 about something

7., to be proud
 with something
 for something
 of something
 at something

8., to be worried
 about something
 for something
 in something
 at something

9., to be married with somebody at somebody to somebody for somebody

10., to be pleased with something
 at something
 in something about something