

Tick the correct answer.

1. Approximately how much of the Earth's surface is covered in water?

- ☐ 85% ☐ 70% ☐ 50%

2. Hail, snow, rain and sleet are all types of what?

- ☐ precipitation ☐ evaporation ☐ transpiration

3. What is water that is underground called?

- ☐ runoff ☐ meltwater ☐ groundwater

4. What is the name for the process of water turning from a liquid to a gas in the air?

- ☐ precipitation ☐ condensation ☐ evaporation

5. Warm, moist air rises into the sky and cools to form what?

- ☐ clouds ☐ puddles ☐ streams
-

The Water Cycle Quiz

Answers

1. Approximately how much of the Earth's surface is covered in water?

70%

2. Hail, snow, rain and sleet are all types of what?

Precipitation

3. What is water that is underground called?

Groundwater

4. What is the name for the process of water turning from a liquid to a gas in the air?

Evaporation

5. Warm, moist air rises into the sky and cools to form what?

Clouds

6. Which of these does not involve liquid water turning into water vapour?

Precipitation

7. What is it called when water on the ground's surface soaks into the soil?

Infiltration

8. Where does most river water end up?

In seas and oceans
