

TALKING ABOUT PLANS

Simple Past and Future with Going to

Read the story and answer the questions.

Last year I traveled with my family around the world, we visited many countries like China, India and Spain, it was really fun.

We did many things, in China I saw the panda bears at the zoo; they were very cute and big.

In India I ate a really spicy soup, I didn't like it.

When we went to Spain we visited some castles, they were amazing.

This year I want to travel in my country, Ecuador. With my family we are going to visit "La Mitad del Mundo" in Quito.

After that, we are going to go to the Amazon jungle, I'm going to sleep on really big trees.

We are also going to swim in the beach in Galapagos and my brothers are going to do snorkeling in the sea. My mom is going to take pictures of the iguanas and my dad is going to pay for everything. I can't wait.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS PART 1

Remember to use the correct form of the verb for the SIMPLE PAST.

1. What places did the boy visit last year?
2. What did he see in China?
3. What did he eat in India?
4. Where did he visit the castles?
5. Did he go to Mexico?
6. Did he have fun?

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS PART 2

Remember to use "GOING TO" in your answers to talk about the FUTURE.

1. What country is he going to visit this year?

2. What is he going to do in Quito?

3. What is he going to do in the Amazon Jungle?

4. Where is he going to swim in the beach?

What are his brothers going to do in Galapagos?

5. What is his mom going to do?