

NAME:

Part 1: Grammar

Exercise 1: Tenses

Fill in the Blanks with the Correct Tense (Present Simple, Present Continuous, Past Simple, Past Continuous, Present Perfect, Future Simple)

1. Last summer, we(go) on a fascinating trip to the ancient ruins.
2. By the time she(arrive), we (finish) all the preparations.
3. I (never / be) to Asia, but I (hope) to visit soon.
4. If I (know) you were coming, I(bake) a cake.
5. By this time tomorrow, we (fly) to a tropical paradise.
6. The tour guide (lead) us through the historic district yesterday.
7. By the time we (arrive) at the airport, our friends (wait) for us for over an hour.
8. She was exhausted because she (run) in the charity marathon for five hours before she finally..... (stop).
9. Next year, we (travel) around the world for ten years, and we'll have amazing stories to share.
10. When you come back, I (work) on this project for two months, and I'll be eager to hear about your experiences.
11. This time next week, we (enjoy) the beautiful sunset on the beach while sipping cocktails.

Exercise 2: Conditionals and Wishes

Complete the sentences using the correct conditional or wish form.

1. If I (be) _____ you, I _____(miss) the chance to explore the hidden gems of the city.
2. I wish I (be) _____ more adventurous and brave.
3. If it (not rain) _____ tomorrow, we _____(have) a picnic by the river.
4. If he _____ (study) harder last year, he _____ (pass) the entrance exam.
5. If only I _____ (know) about the traffic jam, I _____ (leave) earlier.
6. I wish she _____ (join) us on the hiking trip; it _____ (not be) the same without her.
7. If only he _____ (tell) me the truth, I _____ (not feel) betrayed.

Exercise 3: Mixed Conditionals

Complete the sentences using the correct conditional form.

- 1.If she(know) about the meeting, she(be) so angry now.
- 2.If Mary (speak) French, she (help) you with that translation then.
- 3..If I(lose) my keys, I (be) stuck outside in the cold right now.

Part 2: Vocabulary

Exercise 3: Travel and transport

Match the word with its correct definition.

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1.Voyage | a. A payment for services or a charge for something. |
| 2.Sight | b. Relating to the place or environment where a person was born |
| 3.Fee | c. The act of seeing or something worth seeing; a view. |
| 4.Native | d. A short journey or outing, typically for pleasure. |
| 5.Border | e.The cost of a ticket for travel;money paid for transportation. |
| 6.Excursion | f. The line or frontier area separating two countries. |
| 7.Fare | g. A long journey, especially by sea or in space |

Exercise 4: Travel and transport

Put the words in the correct place in the text.

world /area / territory / Earth / arrive / reach / guide / lead / distance

In the vast expanse of our planet, explorers often embark on journeys to uncover hidden treasures and marvel at the wonders of the natural _____. Recently, I joined an expedition to a remote _____, a place untouched by modern civilization. As we ventured into this unexplored _____, the sheer diversity of landscapes amazed us - from dense forests to expansive deserts, each corner of the _____ seemed to have its own story to tell. Our team was fortunate to have an experienced _____ who skillfully navigated us through challenging terrain. With every step, we marveled at the vastness of the _____, realizing the vast _____ we had covered. Eventually, we _____ a point where the landscape changed dramatically, and we knew we had _____ the heart of this uncharted territory. The expedition was not just a physical journey; it was a profound exploration of the mysteries our _____ holds.

Exercise 5: Complete each sentence by filling in the blanks with the correct form of the word in parentheses.

1. The _____ (arrange) of the living room furniture gave the space a fresh and modern look.
2. The _____ (arrive) of the guests was eagerly anticipated at the grand opening ceremony.
3. To gain a broader understanding of different cultures, it's essential to _____ (broad) your horizons through travel.
4. She approached the problem _____ (different) from her colleagues, offering a unique solution.
5. The _____ (direct) of the play received acclaim for his innovative approach to storytelling.
6. The _____ (distant) between the two cities made commuting challenging but not impossible.
7. The city's _____ (inhabit) warmly welcomed newcomers, making them feel part of the community.
8. The photographer captured _____ (photograph) moments during the expedition, creating a visual narrative.
9. His _____ (recognize) as a skilled professional grew after he successfully led the challenging project.
10. The _____ (time) for the train departure is clearly displayed on the electronic board.
11. The vibrant marketplace attracted many _____ (tour) eager to explore local crafts and delicacies.

Exercise 5: Write 1-2 collocations with given words as in the example over here:

ahead: go ahead, be ahead of something accident direction trip

way left advance

Exercise 6: Match the correct phrasal verb to its definition

Run over/Take off/Check in/See off/Turn around/Get back/Make for/Go away/Pull in/Catch up with

1. To register upon arrival, especially at a hotel or airport.
2. To return to a place or to recover from an illness or setback.
3. To head in the direction of; to move towards.
4. To arrive at a destination, especially by vehicle; to attract or draw attention.
5. To say goodbye to someone who is leaving; to accompany a person to their departure point.
6. To leave the ground and begin to fly; to remove clothing.
7. To reach the same level or status as someone; to meet and converse.
8. To leave a place; to depart.
9. To change direction; to reverse a situation.
10. To hit someone or something with a vehicle; to review or repeat quickly.

Exercise 7: Write the correct preposition or prepositions.

1. Could you please hand the papers? I want to make sure everyone gets one.
2. I need some time to sort the issues with my computer. It's not working properly.
3. My parents brought me to value honesty and hard work.
4. If you don't know the meaning of a word, you can look it in the dictionary.
5. The old house was in poor condition, but with some effort, we managed to do it
6. She really takes her grandmother, both in looks and personality.
7. Can you look my plants while I'm away on vacation?
8. The team brainstormed for hours to come a solution to the challenging problem.
9. It's hard to keep all the changes happening in the technology world.
10. We need to hurry to the store; we're about to run milk.