

Comparatives and superlatives (part 2)

comparatives

adjective		comparative	rule
one-syllable adjectives	cold	colder	adjective + -er
some two-syllable adjectives	quiet	quieter
adjectives: ending in -e ending in -y ending in a consonant + vowel + consonant	large	larger
	noisy	noisier
	hot	hotter	double the final consonant of the adjective + -er
many two-syllable adjectives	boring	more boring	more + adjective
all longer adjectives	expensive	more expensive
irregular adjectives	good	better
	bad	worse
	far	further/farther

Use comparatives (+ than) to compare things and people.

My sister's taller than me. A restaurant is quieter than a disco.

1) Complete the text with the comparative form of the adjectives in brackets.

Race across London

Which is faster – public transport, cycling or driving? In this week's Travel Challenge three reporters travel across London in a race to be the first person to the London Barrier. But whose form of transport is _____ (good)?

Alfie: I'm completing the challenge in my car. It's quicker, _____ (comfortable) and a lot cheaper than public transport. And who says it's _____ (dirty) than public transport – look at the pollution from buses!

Tessa: I know cycling _____ (slow) than the other two on a clear road but London has a lot of traffic and it's _____ (busy) in the rush hour when we're racing. The quickest form of transport isn't important in these conditions – it's the smartest way to travel. Unfortunately it's also _____ (dangerous) than the others.

Troy: I need to think quicker than the others and get my times right. I'm using public transport, so missing a bus or tube is a _____ (big) problem than the traffic for me.

2) Read the text in Exercise 1 again and write the correct sentences.

- 1 Alfie thinks that public transport is cheaper than a car.
- 2 Alfie thinks his car is dirtier than public transport.
- 3 Tess thinks public transport is more dangerous than cycling.
- 4 Tessa thinks that using the quickest form of transport is more important than choosing the smartest way to travel.
- 5 Troy thinks that traffic is a bigger problem than missing a bus.

3) Look at the table below and make sentences. Use the adjectives in brackets to help.

1. plane/bus (fast)

2. car/plane (comfortable)

3. train/bus (expensive)

4. bus/car (long)

Istanbul to Ankara – travel options
	plane	train	car	bus
seats	+++	++++	+	++
time	++++	+++	++	+
comfort	+	++++	+++	+
cost	+++	++++	+++	++

4) Complete the sentences with comparative forms of the words in brackets.

- 1 The ...harder..... you study, the ...faster..... you learn. (hard, fast)
- 2 The _____ he waited, the _____ he became. (long, impatient)
- 3 The _____ the weather, the _____ I feel. (warm, good)
- 4 The _____ we got to the exam room, the _____ we felt. (near, nervous)
- 5 The _____ the music, the _____ the crowd became. (loud, excited)
- 6 The _____ the match, the _____ the players get. (important, aggressive)

superlatives

adjective	superlative	rule
cold	the coldest	the + adjective + -est
nice	the nicest	the + adjective + -st friendly	the friendliest	the + adjective -y + -iest
big	the biggest	double the final consonant of the adjective + -est
boring	the most boring	the most + adjective
interesting	the most interesting
good	the best
bad	the worst
far	the furthest/farthest

Use superlatives to talk about the number one thing in a group.

Maria's spelling is the best in the class.

Note: The spelling rules for superlatives are the same as for comparatives.

5) Complete the questions. Use the superlative form of the adjectives in brackets.

- 1 Which _____ (fast) way to travel?
- 2 Which _____ (slow) way to get there?
- 3 Which _____ (expensive) form of transport?
- 4 Which _____ (cheap) form of transport?

5 Which _____ (comfortable) way to get there?

6 Which _____ (good) way to get to Ankara?

6) Underline the correct alternative.

Bad? It was the worse/worst experience of my life! The hotel was much more/most expensive than we imagined. It was also bigger/biggest than it looked in the photos – not a boutique hotel at all. The staff never seemed to smile – they were unfriendly / the most unfriendly people I've ever met. They were also the noisiest/noiser ! Every night there was something going on. The journeys between towns were difficult/more difficult than they said. The one good thing was that the weather was hot/hotter than I expected. Next year will be better/the best !

Nothing could be as bad as this!

7) Complete the sentences. Use a superlative (-est or most ...) or a comparative (er or more ...).

1 We stayed at _____ hotel in the town. (cheap)

2 Our hotel was _____ than all the others in the town. (cheap)
