

LESSON SUMMARY

Vocabulary

Word/Phrase	Meaning	Example
car wash (n) /kɑːrˈwɑːʃ/	an event to raise money for charity by washing cars	There is a car wash in our neighborhood next Friday.
bake sale (n) /ˈbeɪk seɪl/	an event to raise money by making and selling cakes	There are many cookies, cupcakes and pies at the bake sale .
craft fair (n) /ˈkrɑːft ˈfeər/	an event where people sell things they make with their hands	The local craft fair sells a lot of nice arts and crafts.
talent show (n) /ˈtælənt ʃoʊ/	an event where participants show their talents, such as singing, acting, etc.	Sarah is singing a song by Taylor Swift at the talent show .
fun run (n) /ˈfʌn ˈrʌn/	an event where people run to raise money for charity	We consider participating in the fun run to raise funds.
volunteer (n) /ˌvɒləntɪər/ → voluntary (adj)	a person who is willing to do something for other people or a community without asking for payment	Our school needs one more volunteer for the car wash.
charity event (n phr.) /ˈtʃerɪti ɪˈvent/	an event to raise money for helping other people	They are holding a charity event next week.
right (n) /raɪt/	something acceptable to do in a moral, legal or formal way	People all over the world have the right to education.

Grammar

Making suggestions

We use should, let's, why don't we and how about to make suggestions and offer ideas or plans.

• should/shouldn't + bare infinitive	• We should make toy animals to sell at the craft fair.
• Let's (not) + bare infinitive	• Let's (not) go to the bake sale.
• Why don't we + bare infinitive?	• Why don't we volunteer to help poor children?
• How about + V-ing?	• How about organizing a car wash?
• How about + Subject + Verb (Present Simple)?	• How about we join a fun run?

Pronunciation

Word stress in compound nouns

- ✧ A compound noun is made up of two or more words. They can be written in one word (peanut), with a space (hot dog) or with a hyphen between words (make-up).
- ✧ We usually put the stress on the first word in a compound noun.

book fair

art show

blackboard

haircut

PRACTICE

Pronunciation

Circle the word that has a stress pattern different from the others.

- | | | | |
|--------------|------------|-------------|-------------|
| 1 A cupcake | B design | C necklace | D X-ray |
| 2 A talent | B haircut | C birthday | D idea |
| 3 A donation | B vacation | C reporter | D classmate |
| 4 A event | B seafood | C clean-up | D pancake |
| 5 A hospital | B energy | C volunteer | D charity |

Vocabulary

a. Match the students with the events.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Ben – "I enjoy doing sports. I am joining this event to raise money to help poor people." |
| 2 | Penny – "I always make things at home, such as cards and toys." |
| 3 | Sarah – "I think I'm good at cooking. That's why I join this event." |
| 4 | Lily – "I often help my dad clean his car. I'd like to join and show how to do it." |
| 5 | Adrian – "I am a good singer, and I dance very well. I'm so excited for this event!" |

- A a craft fair
- B a fun run
- C a talent show
- D a car wash
- E a bake sale

b. Complete the text using the words in the boxes.

fun run

right

charity

volunteers

bake sale

My summer holiday

My summer vacations are usually very boring, but this year is different. My school organizes several 6) _____ events in which students can participate. Not all students have to participate in these events, but they can be 7) _____ in whatever they want. I'm holding a 8) _____ to raise funds. I'm interested in the 9) _____ as well, but I'm not very good at baking, so I opt for another project. In my opinion, all children should have the 10) _____ to attend school. That is why I teach homeless children in the evenings. I'm excited to be able to help many people this summer!

Grammar

a. Circle the correct options.

- I think many people love reading books. Let's / How about organize a book fair.
- How about / Why don't we buy clothes and food for poor children?
- Let's / Let's not sell handmade soaps at the craft fair because it's not easy to make.
- Everybody is tired after the long run. How about us / we prepare some bottled water?
- We all can play the guitar, so we let's / should form a band and participate in the talent show.

b. Give the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

- How much should we _____ (charge) people for the art show?
- We shouldn't _____ (choose) this area for the bake sale. There aren't many people here.
- Ben is good at drawing. How about _____ (ask) him to design the poster?
- How about we _____ (look) for more volunteers tomorrow?
- Most people are off from work on the weekend. Let's _____ (hold) the car wash this Saturday.

Reading

a. Read four advertisements for volunteers. Which role is best for each person?

A - Gardener

Do you enjoy gardening? We need volunteers to visit elderly people in the neighborhood and help them with their gardens. To do the job, you must enjoy talking to people and making new friends. You don't have to bring any gardening equipment. Join us right now!

B - Sports Coach

We are looking for someone to run an after-school sports club. We want to encourage overweight children to do different sports. If you are interested in sports and can play at least one sport, join us now!

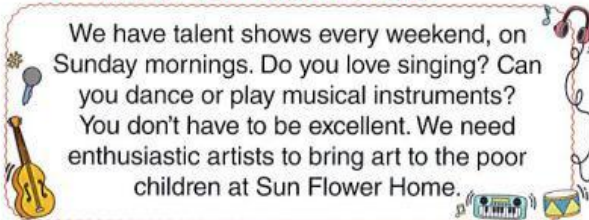

C - Assistant in Art Shops

We are looking for volunteers to help arrange artwork by a young artist, keep the shop tidy, and serve customers. If you enjoy talking to people and just love art, scan the code below and submit your online registration form.

D - Artist for Talent Shows

We have talent shows every weekend, on Sunday mornings. Do you love singing? Can you dance or play musical instruments? You don't have to be excellent. We need enthusiastic artists to bring art to the poor children at Sun Flower Home.

- 1 Andy is a caring person and he often helps the elderly. _____
- 2 Gina likes to meet new people and is interested in drawings and paintings. _____
- 3 Nancy can play different musical instruments and sing beautifully. _____
- 4 Joey is a careful person and has some experience selling greeting cards. _____
- 5 Luke is friendly to everyone and really loves doing sports. _____

b. Read the text about why volunteering. Write Y (yes), N (no) or NG (not given).

WHY VOLUNTEERING

Hi! My name is Tom. One of my favorite things to do in my free time is to volunteer. I am now a member of different voluntary groups, and I take different roles. These roles are simple, like taking old people for a walk in nursing homes and running activities for children at an after-school club. I enjoy volunteering, and I encourage others to join charity events as soon as possible. Here are some reasons for volunteering.

1 It's a chance to gain experience and skills.

Volunteering allows you to gain valuable experience and skills for the future. Many volunteer activities, for example, can help you gain experience working as part of a team.

2 You can meet new people.

One of the best things about volunteering is meeting the other volunteers. They are very interesting and you can learn many things from them.

3 It's a way to gain confidence.

If you are shy, volunteering can help you feel more comfortable talking to strange people and even in front of a crowd!

4 You can be so happy!

Doing a good thing for someone or helping others can make you happy. And volunteering is just like that.

6 Tom does the same task in different voluntary groups. _____

7 Volunteering can teach you teamwork skills. _____

8 You can't see and talk to other volunteers. _____

9 Tom can make friends with many new people. _____

10 Helping people can bring you happiness. _____

Speaking

Complete the conversation using the sentences in the box.

Martin Hey, guys. Do you have any ideas for our next volunteering event?

Annie Well, I think we should help the stray animals.

Martin 1) _____ We can encourage other students to do the activity, too.

Annie But the 3R team is planning to do so. We should have a different idea.

Martin 2) _____

Annie I love this idea. What should we do first?

Martin We should decide what trees to plant. 3) _____

Annie Yeah. I know where to buy good pine trees.

Martin Okay. How many volunteers are joining us?

Annie There are a lot of trees to plant. 4) _____

Martin Right! 5) _____

Annie What a good idea!

A We should have as many volunteers as possible.

B That's a good idea.

C Let's put 30 students.

D How about planting trees along the beach?

E How about we plant pine trees?

Writing

a. Underline ONE mistake in each sentence and correct it.

1 Let collect our old clothes.

2 How about plant more trees?

3 I think you should joining charity clubs.

4 How about us buy books for poor children in the country?

5 Let's helping the old people.

b. Rearrange the words to make complete sentences.

6 car / about / we / a / organize / wash? / How

7 show. / talent / take / in / Let's / part / a

8 should / fair. / organize / a / We / craft

9 donating / children? / How / about / books / old / poor / for 10 trees. / money / raise / for / I / planting / should / think / we

Answer key

• Pronunciation ____/10 pts.
• Vocabulary ____/20 pts.
• Grammar ____/20 pts.

• Reading ____/20 pts.
• Speaking ____/10 pts.
• Writing ____/20 pts.

★★★★★
Total ____ / 100 pts.