Grammar

Past Simple with regular verbs

We use the Past Simple to talk about completed past actions.

Affirmative They raised money for charity yesterday.

Negative The mayor didn't agree to recycle plastic bottles.

Questions Casey: "Did you go to the charity event last weekend?"
Jim: "Yes, I donated my old bike."

Common time expressions

- yesterday
- in May/2006
- last week/summer/year
- an hour/week/year ago

Spelling rules for -ed endings of regular verbs in the Past Simple

- For most of the verbs, we add -ed to the verbs.
clean → cleaned volunteer → volunteered
- For verbs ending with -e, we add -d.
dance → danced recycle → recycled
- For verbs ending with a consonant + y, we change y to i and add -ed.
study → studied carry → carried
- BUT for verbs ending with a vowel + y, we add -ed.
enjoy → enjoyed
- For one-syllable verbs ending with a consonant + vowel + consonant, we double the last consonant and add -ed.
stop → stopped plan → planned
