

Unit test 6

Vocabulary

1 Complete the sentences with the correct word or words.

- The computer g..... on this game are fantastic. The pictures are so realistic.
- The Sims* is an a..... world where none of the characters are real.
- New hand-held computers are p..... so you can carry them everywhere with you.
- My favourite games c..... is the Gameboy because it has great games.
- You can save information on a m..... s..... and then take it anywhere with you.

2 Choose the word (A, B, C or D) that best completes the sentence.

- This is a/an computer so you can take it anywhere.
A old-fashioned B hand-held
C touch-sensitive D built-in
- Modern computers have become totally so even young children can operate them.
A well-known B user-friendly
C hi-tech D widespread
- Do you think scientists will be able to create artificial in the future?
A intellectual B intelligent
C intelligence D intellect
- Even PCs from ten years ago now look quite
A best-selling B old-fashioned
C action-packed D built-in
- Microsoft is owned by Bill Gates and is a company. Almost everyone has heard of it.
A well-known B well-spoken
C well-liked D well-made

3 Choose the correct order of adjectives.

- Frances carried a trendy red/beautiful bag.
- Barry was wearing old tight/leather shoes.
- One of the boys in the band had untidy/blond long hair.
- The film starred a dark-haired tall/Greek actor.
- My dad has a tiny expensive/new computer.

4 Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

- It was freezing/absolutely cold in the cinema so we left and came home.
- I hate watching terrified/scary movies. I have to hide behind the sofa!
- Sam spends most of the weekend chatting hi-tech/online to his friends.

- I don't want my bedroom to be painted common/plain white. That would be boring!
- This new best-selling children's book has a/an energetic/dramatic storyline.

Grammar

1 Complete the text with the past simple or present perfect simple form of the verb in brackets.

Yahoo 1 (just release) a new version of their popular email service. They 2 (introduce) the changes at a big launch party last Monday. People who 3 (already try) the new system 4 (say) that they liked it. Most people should be able to download the changes this week as the company 5 (send) out a message to all their customers with the details of how to get the new service last week.

2 Complete the sentences with a, some, much or many.

- Anthony Horowitz hasn't written books for adult readers.
- Have you got minute? We need to talk about the project.
- Can I give you advice about how to lose weight?
- Hurry up! There isn't time left before the train leaves.
- What great film! Let's go and watch it again!

3 Choose the word or phrase (A, B, C or D) that best completes the sentence.

- Nicole Kidman has starred in of films.
A much B a few C a bit D plenty
- My sister has friends.
A a bit B a lot of C any D lots
- people didn't come to the party because of the bad weather.
A Any B Much C Lots D Several
- You can't have a biscuit because there aren't left.
A any B plenty C several D a little
- My grandad did travelling when he was younger.
A a lot of B a few C many D several

My score: ____ /35